

REFLEX XRF CONNECT

Download & Installation Instructions

Download and install the REFLEX XRF CONNECT desktop software from this website HERE

Please note, you will need Admin rights to install this software.

Licensing Instructions

To licence your REFLEX XRF CONNECT software, please follow the steps below.

If you are using a floating server licence, then connect to your company licence and a REFLEX XRF Connect token will be issued to your desktop instance for use.

If you have downloaded the software to use as a single-seat or trial, then please follow the instructions below for licencing:

- Start the software. The Licence Manager dialog is displayed if no licence is present.
- Copy and paste the Machine ID number in this dialog into an email and send it to reflex.xrf@imdexlimited.com.
- Upon receipt of your licence file, copy it to the location outlined in the accompanying email and re-start the REFLEX XRF CONNECT software.
- Click on the Open License File button and browse to the newly installed licence file.
- To view the licence expiry date and other details see the Help>Licence Manager menu option.
